Communication skills

As a student graduate in International Communications, I have learnt about the many aspects of communication learning how to refer to my pairs and my professors. I also worked part-time in a web development company. My role in this job put me in direct contact with customers which allows me to obtain good communication skills.

Organisational / managerial skills

My work experience allows me to be a team worker and also train me to have good relations with my pairs.

Job-related skills

My work experience allowed me to refine my skills on applications such as Photoshop, InDesign, Illustrator, WordPress and Joomla. Also working as a contracted painter i had lear about the many aspects of art, so i developed a good eye for art works and also a good hand hand painting.

During my university years I took extra classes such as journalism, photography, art and cinema, which allowed me to continue developing my artistic side building on my early age beginnings as a contracted painter, and the workshop put me in the right way learning new techniques and art history.
