Getting to Perugia

By plane

Perugia has its own airport, the Umbria International Airport "San Francesco D'Assisi".

The airport is located about 15 km from the city centre of Perugia. From the airport, you can get a taxi at the fixed price of 35 euro. Taxis are usually waiting outside the airport, but you can also call in advance to make an appointment (+39 075 500 48 88). Alternatively, you can get the Umbria Airlink bus, which connects the airport to the city centre daily. The fares start at 5 euro.

By plane + train/bus

In case you find no connecting flights to Perugia, you may choose to fly to Rome Fiumicino or Ciampino. Once in Rome, you may get a train to Perugia or either a Flixbus or Sulga bus.

From train station to city centre

The main train station in Perugia is Perugia Fontivegge. To get to the city centre from there, you may get the minimetro or the bus (line G). A ticket valid for 75 minutes, that can be used on both the minimetro and the bus, costs 1,50 euro, if purchased at the vending machines, or 2,00 euro, if purchased on the bus. It is not possible to purchase tickets on the minimetro. Alternatively, you will usually find a line of taxis located outside Perugia Fontivegge station. The taxi fare from Perugia Fontivegge to Perugia city centre is approximately 10,00-15,00 euro.

From bus station to city centre

The main bus station in Perugia is located at Piazza Partigiani. It is very close to the city centre, so you can easily walk to get there. There are lifts that will take you up the hill. They are free and require no ticket. Alternatively, you may call a taxi.
