

ASSISTANT TEACHER - Internship in Italy

Verano Brianza (20 km far from Milan) in the north of Italy

This experience is suitable for students and young graduates who want to get in touch with Italian culture, visit our country and learn about our cultural traditions as well as improve their teaching and educational skills.

The trainee student will always be accompanied by an Italian teacher with whom he/she will organize the didactic intervention in the classes. The working week will be 5 days and free time will be ensured to study and cultivate one's interests. For any information and clarification, contact me without delay.

What is required?

A real passion for education and improving the attainment of pupils

Good communication and interpersonal skills

Cooperation with teachers in preparing and performing educational projects and activities

Availability from October/November 2023 to May 2024

Flexible hours from 8.00 am to 16.20 pm

Part-time internship (about 20/24 hours per week)

Possessing a bachelor's degree in a relevant field teaching, education, psychology, social science, social care, social work or a related discipline is preferred, but not required.

What are the opportunities in this role?

. A great opportunity for an English-speaking student interested in learning more about the Italian language and culture

. A real opportunity for the development of one's professional skills.

. At our school, you will receive ongoing support and guidance from our in-house team of experienced teachers. In the classes you will always be accompanied by an Italian teacher: you will never be alone with the students.

Reimbursement of expenses, food and accommodation provided.
