

Okayama University
2024 Exchange Program (EPOK) Inbound Application Guideline

Impact of the Global Pandemic on the EPOK Inbound Program

- 1) Under the circumstances in which foreign students are able to enter Japan due to the relaxation of Japan's border control measures, travel schedules and study methods shall in principle, be the same as those before COVID, and the students shall come to Japan to participate in the program.
- 2) Students may be restricted from traveling or from entering Japan per Japanese national policies and those of the students' respective nations.

1. Program Guidelines

Exchange Program (EPOK)

Okayama University conducts the Exchange Program Okayama (EPOK) with partner universities based on an Agreement of Cooperation (hereinafter referred to as “the Agreement”). EPOK students choose from a variety of courses conducted in English and take Japanese language courses. Okayama University accepts students nominated from 67 partner universities (including EPOK-ASEAN(AUN) partner universities) in 24 countries in 2023.

*See the list of EPOK partner universities here:
