EMPOWERED LEADERSHIP: MANAGING PEOPLE & BUSINESS SKILLS

on-line: March 13-14, 2025, on-site: March 17-21, 2025

Description and organizer

Empowered Leadership: Managing People and Business Skills is an intensive program designed to enrich students' business skills in Romania's landscapes. This program is addressed to international students, aiming to initiate them in the fundamentals of people management, HRM practices, and business skills.

In this program, participants will explore the topics of empowered leadership in a multicultural setting, strengthening their ability to inspire, guide, and nurture talent. This program emphasizes human resource management (HRM) practices, enabling participants to understand how to attract, develop, and retain a diverse workforce in a global business environment.

Participants will have the opportunity to interact with Romanian students and businesses, understanding the most recent HRM practices and approaches to leadership. Through workshops, case studies, practical projects, and guided discussions, students will gain an in-depth understanding of effective HRM strategies and how to apply leadership principles to drive organizational success.

By the end of this program, participants will emerge as confident leaders, ready to navigate the diverse challenges of global business landscapes and drive people-centric growth in their organizations.

The program will be organized by the Universitatea Babeş-Bolyai, Cluj-Napoca, Romania – Faculty of Economics and Business Administration and the Centre for International Cooperation

First 2 online days

The online part of the training aims to ensure that participants have a clear understanding of the program's objectives and structure, by setting explicit expectations regarding the organizing details and the topics covered by the program. The second goal is to develop a sense of community among the participating international students, through “get to know each other” sessions and virtual group work. The third goal is to provide an introduction to Empowered Leadership, introducing the fundamental principles and practices essential for effective leadership in a multicultural environment. A second topic that will be covered online will delve into the global landscape of Human Resource Management (HRM) practices. The discussion will encompass an overview of HRM strategies from a worldwide perspective, emphasizing the pivotal role of culture and diversity in shaping HRM approaches. These first two days are focused on creating an overview of the program and facilitating the in person sessions.
