CALL FOR DICTIONARY ENTRIES

The Research Centre for Literary Tourism (TULE), based at the University for Foreigners of Perugia (Italy), opens a new call for proposals for dictionary entries to be included in the E-Dictionary of Literary Tourism.

This open-access dictionary aggregates texts on concepts, authors, places, products and experiences associated with literary touring.

All submissions go through a double-blind review process.

Check the entries that have already been published and submit a 100-word-topic proposal in English to tule.literarytourismresearch@gmail.com by 31st January 2025.

After the proposal acceptance, TULE will invite the submission of the complete dictionary entry (1500 words) by 23rd April 2025.

Guidelines for the 1500-word dictionary entry:

Font: Candara

Size of font: 12pt (text and references) and 13pt – the title

Line spacing: 1,15

Number of references: up to 5

Voice: impersonal (not “I” nor “we”)

Quotation marks: “...”

Quotation marks inside quotation marks: «...»

It should be a full text with no subsections (unless they are very pertinent)

Margins: top and bottom: 2,5 cm; left and right: 3 cm

All images should be labelled “Figures”, and they should be numbered. The title of the figure should be in font 10pt, and the source must be included unless it is by the author of the entry.
